The 2012 Championships continue at

KNOLLWOOD COUNTRY CLUB

Nestled in Granada Hills is a course that will awaken the senses with its colorful foliage, versatile layout and challenging greens. We invite you to put your game to the test, beginning with one of the toughest holes in Southern California.

Knollwood is designed in a canyon with many uphill and downhill shots. Trees and sand bunkers line the fairways. There are no water hazards on the golf course. During the winter, winds become a challenge here at Knollwood. Course Architect: William F. Bell
